

If Government Takes Water Rights - Why Not Other Property

Who Owns The Water On Our Land

The biggest water litigation the West has ever known finds 14,000 Southern California residents being served summonses by U. S. Marshals to appear in court to defend their right to use the water on their own land, according to the current (January 5th) issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

An article entitled "The Government's Big Grab" says the clamor raised over the water loss of the 479 citizens of the town of Fallbrook and their former neighbors might seem out of proportion to the stakes involved, but when the tedious evidence and headache-making legal arguments are examined, it appears plain that the case is also a matter of national consequence.

Co-authors Ed Ainsworth and Cameron Shipp point out that if the Government can by sovereign authority take California water, then it might by the same reasoning take anything anywhere. Congressman John P. Saylor, of Pennsylvania, member of a House sub-committee which made a spot investigation of the controversy, is quoted as substantiating this thinking: "The implication goes far beyond California. There is no telling what they may move into the coal fields of Pennsylvania, or into the ore fields of Michigan, or into the great central part of our country."

The Government's attempt to seize Fallbrook's water — not some of it, but all of it — is said to involve legal arguments that few laymen, save a Californian with his living at stake, would dream of trying to understand.

The problem began when Uncle Sam bought 135,000 acres of nearby land and that land's water rights, and established Camp Joseph H. Pendleton for the training of Marines. Camp artist is so glowing with praise that one must brush aside a multitude of adjectives to condense the huzzahs to a simple statement that Mr. Spivakovsky has "the most colossal technique of any violinist now before the public," which seems to be a critical consensus.

Advance publicity for the

Program numbers will include the Sonata in A major (Handel); Concerto in D, No. 1, Op. 6 (Paganini); Roumanian Dances (Bartok); Melodie (Prokofiev); and Polonaise (Wieniawski). Doors will be opened at 7:30, with the concert scheduled to start promptly at 8:15, with no one seated during the first group of numbers.

Big Building Year Predicted In County

The big construction year in the unincorporated areas of San Diego County in 1951 is expected to be exceeded by 1952.

This is the optimistic view of Harold V. Krotsch, architect and plan checker for the County Building Department.

"With the ever increasing need for defense housing it can hardly be anything but a bumper year," he stated.

Krotsch pointed out that most of the housing will probably be of a lower cost type construction of one-story and requiring very little use of restricted materials.

He stated that in 1951 the department issued 13,087 permits for new construction in the unincorporated areas of the County with a valuation of $35,136,115. Of this 3401 permits were for one family dwellings.

This compares with 11,089 permits issued during 1950 when the valuation was set at $33,197,668. Included were 3958 permits for one family dwellings units.

But for the month of December statistics of the County Building Department shows that permits for 208 one-family dwellings were issued. The greatest concentration was in the Encinitas district where 55 homes are being constructed.

The Lemon Grove area showed that some 40 permits were taken out, while the Helix area had 14.

Also during the month construction was begun on 21 duplexes and apartments. Of these one duplex, a 4-unit apartment and a 3-unit apartment were in the Lemon Grove section.

Resources Lower Than Other Schools

Grossmont High School District, located in the heart of one of the State's most desirable residential areas is among the districts least able to support education, according to statistics released by the Division of Research, California Teachers' Association.

The assessed valuation per pupil in the Grossmont district is $15,000 which is exceeded by 283 of the 338 high school districts in the state. This is further highlighted by the figures which show 404,000 high school students are located in the wealthier districts and that only 13,000 students are in districts with a lower assessed valuation.

When the tax rates of California high school districts are considered, Grossmont is among the 20% which have not been forced to exceed the old maximum tax rate of 75c.

Because of the low tax rate and the low assessed valuation, the district has been falling from $60 to $80 below state averages in per pupil costs for many years. Inflationary costs have cut the purchasing power of the dollar by nearly 50%. This, coupled with lowered state apportionments, have created problems which have been increasing in intensity.

The Grossmont Board of Trustees has offered a strong educational program in the face of adverse financial conditions and has been reluctant to add to the heavy burden on real property. Now, under pressure from inflation, the issue is increased taxes or a curtailed educational program. "The School election on January 29 will decide whether an equal educational opportunity is to be provided, the youth in Grossmont and Helix high schools," declared Supt. Lewis F. Smith.

Americans Disappointed by Red's list of 3,198 Prisoners-of-War

LAUGHTER AND TEARS—Tears and laughter echoed in the homes of America. The Communists handed over their list of American prisoners, containing 3,198 names.

For mothers and fathers, sweethearts and wives, of these 3,198 there was laughter and one of the happiest holiday seasons on record, at for other thousands there were tears and despair.

The nation as a whole, however, was shocked and disappointed the list. What had happened to the remaining 11,559 American soldiers known missing in Korea?

A civilian employee of the Defense Department's public information office hands reporters the first list of names of 3,198 American prisoners-of-war as reported by the Communists.

There was no answer to this question. But all too well the people of America remember the stories of atrocities made public recently in Korea.

And even as thousands were rejoicing at word that their fighting men are still alive, the Department of Defense and President Truman warned that the Communist prisoner-of-war reports are completely unverified. The enemy has refused to permit Red Cross inspection of its camps.

White House Secretary Joseph Short told newsmen: "The President has asked me to urge every news medium to stress as often as possible that the prisoner-of-war list is entirely unverified."

"He appreciates the efforts already made along this line but believes it important to continue them—to do even more than already has been done."

"This country has no way of verifying whether the list is accurate, inaccurate, true or false, complete or incomplete."

"For the sake of the families whose sons are missing in action, anyone should treat this list with skepticism."

But for the mothers of America there was one reaction: "Thank God for such wonderful news. It answers tens of thousands of prayers."

Shortly after the names of Americans on the Communist list was made public, the UN handed the Reds a stiffly-worded note demanding that an enemy account for more than 1,000 prisoners not named. The UN demands these prisoners had been named in earlier Communist propaganda broadcasts, but were not on the prisoner-of-war list. What has come of them, the UN wants to know?

EUROPE'S UNITY—There has been a growing feeling in the rural districts of America that the countries of western Europe are making progress toward unity in spirit or force. Secretary of State Acheson, ever, believes otherwise.

Acheson said recently that Europeans have made more progress in the last four years toward bringing about this unity than they did in the previous five centuries. As examples, he pointed out the six-nation European army program and the Schuman plan for pooling coal and steel resources.

One of the main blocks in the formation of the Europe-army is the wish unwillingness to contribute troops to such an organization. Before plan can succeed as planned by General Eisenhower, the British must have to change their policy which dates from the time of Queen Elizabeth.

COST-OF-LIVING—As 1951 came to a close, the Bureau of Labor statistics released figures on the cost-of-living for the American family. A bureau's index hit a new peak of 10.8 per cent above the level of 1913, when the Korean war broke out.

The bureau said the rising costs of miscellaneous goods and services, higher prices for fresh fruits and vegetables, were largely responsible for the increase.

NEW BLACKMAIL—Hungary, with a record of holding American prisoners to gain concessions from the United States, has embarked again in the blackmail trail. This time she is holding four U. S. airmen whose plane was forced down by Soviet fighter planes after it strayed into the Hungarian border.

The Soviet puppet says she will bring to trial the four airmen who landed the Hungarian border "with the criminal intentions of dropping arms and diversions in the territory of the Hungarian Republic."

Last year Hungary jailed American businessman Robert A. Vogeler charges of espionage and later released him after the U. S. agreed a number of concessions.

It is now but a matter of time before the Hungarians ask for more concessions. And if the blackmail works as before, the airmen will be freed after much propaganda and the concessions granted.

THE BIG TRAGEDY—Among other things, the year 1951 will be remembered for the big tragedy—the millionth traffic fatality.

The nation's tragic parade of motor vehicle accident deaths began November 13, 1899. H. H. Bliss, victim No. 1, was killed by a horseless carriage in New York City.

Heavy snow and ice-crusted highways and the fact that thousands Americans made holiday trips, contributed to the traffic death rate in the year.

U. S. BALKS—For the first time in the history of the United Nations, United States balked at the levy it must pay to help maintain that organization. The U. S. cited its huge expenditures in the Korean war as the billions spent to uphold the charter principles which the United Nations was not in a position to implement.

The assembly, however, approved a 1952 budget of $48,096,780, of which the U. S. will pay 36.9 per cent. Although less than last year's, the U. S. objected that no state should pay more than one third of budget.

The British are to pay 10.56 per cent of the fiscal year 1952 and the rest Union, the Ukraine, and White Russia 11.49 per cent.

Meeting for the first time since World War II, two old friends, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower (left) and Prime Minister Winston Churchill (right) met in Paris recently for a series of conferences on the European army plan. Eisenhower was understood to have made a fervent appeal to Churchill to give more encouragement to the plan. There were also reports circulated after Churchill returned to England that Eisenhower expressed his willingness to "stay on the job" for a longer period if Britain would give greater support to the plan.

MEAT FORECAST

Smaller Spring Pig Crop in Prospect

Hopes for a larger supply of meat in butcher shops next year are being dashed by a lower price received a jolt the government's forecast of a 10 per cent reduction in next year's pig crop. It may mean a higher price for meat, the department of Agriculture believed. A survey indicated 1952 pig crop would number 60,000 head, compared with 61,957,000 last spring, and 55,407,000 for the 10-year (1940-49) average.

Responsibility of the reduction in production rests largely with a dwindling supply of corn and other livestock feeds. For the past two years the nation has been using grains at a faster rate than it has produced them. The deficit has been taken from reserves accumulated in 1948 and 1949.

QUESTIONED . . . Charles O'Connell, ex-counsel of revenue bureau, admits he gave Henry Grunwald data on Teitelbaum tax case, but denies he was member of alleged clique of officials who tried to shake Teitelbaum for $500,000 in crooked money.

FREED . . . Vance Erin Hardy was freed in Detroit court after spending 27 years for crime he did not commit—murder. He was freed through the efforts of his sister, Gladys Barrett, Detroit, after investigation by a national magazine of his case.

BLIND GI HOME . . . P.F.C. Charles Hunziger, New York, almost totally blinded by a grenade explosion in battle of Heartbreak Ridge, was flown home by the military air transport service. He spent the recent holiday with his mother.

BLEAK FUTURE . . . Korea vet John Palma, Brooklyn, smiles with fiancée Terry Marchiano. Wounded in Korea, taken prisoner and released, he still has 12 pieces of shrapnel in his head and G.I. bill of rights offers him no aid in supporting himself.

SNUG . . . A white-gloved North Korean Communist corporal-of-the-guard buttons up the rain poncho of a Communist sentry who is standing guard at the site of the Panmunjom, Korea, armistice talks now in progress.

U. N. ADMITS RED CHARGES . . . At Panmunjom, Korea, Colonel Andrew J. Kinney squints in the sun as he and a Chinese Communist officer hold a part of a napalm bomb casing found by the Reds at Kaesong. The United Nations admitted a charge made by the Communists that an allied aircraft strafed and bombed Kaesong. The city is the headquarters for the Communist delegation to the armistice talks.

JET HELICOPTER . . . Former navy pilot William Murray, Wilton, Conn., flies the experimental helicopter K-225 during its first successful flight, just announced by the navy. Instead of using velocity of exhaust gases for forward thrust, the craft uses this power to turn shaft of rotor blades. Engine can operate on low grade fuels or on high octane gasoline. Unlike piston engine, the turbine requires neither a cooling fan or a centrifugal clutch. Engine is 175 h.p.

CROSSING ACCIDENT KILLS DRIVER . . . This panel truck, in which its driver died, rests atop a railroad trestle in Pittsburgh near the train with which it collided. The freight train struck at the crossing, and the force of the collision carried the truck several hundred feet on to the trestle. The driver, Jacob Ambrosio, who was an operator of a cleaning shop, was delivering clothing to his customers when his truck was hit by the train and shoved on the trestle.

WATER TANK FALLS UPON TOWN . . . An entire city block in the town of Tucuman, New Mexico, was devastated recently when a huge water tank suddenly collapsed and crushed and flooded the whole area. Four persons in the vicinity of the tank were killed. No explanation for the sudden fall of the large tank, which cost one million dollars, was given, but authorities were investigating to determine if there was deliberate destruction of the tank by persons unknown.

The Clean-Up

WHITE HOUSE advisers report that while the President was at Key West he did not seem too anxious to move boldly toward a corruption clean up. When he got back to Washington, however, he got much more in a mood to houseclean.

Some of the young men around him felt pretty strongly about the housecleaning and did their best to influence the President. So did Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, a former cabinet member, while new Democratic Chairman Frank McKinney also threw his weight behind a purge.

It was Senator Anderson who first phoned the President at Key West more than three weeks ago urging drastic action.

At first, Chief Justice Fred Vinson, though anxious for a clean-up, seemed to think things could be patched up without firing Howard McGrath as attorney general. Senator Anderson, however, disagreed. He told the chief justice that the President would lean on him heavily for advice and that he should recommend drastic measures.

Without a drastic purge, the senator from New Mexico argued, the administration would lose all control over congress. Vinson seemed to agree.

Broken Mink Market

The other day a high official of the munitions board wanted to buy a small fur piece as a 25th wedding anniversary present for his wife.

Momentarily forgetting the current congressional investigations, he entered Washington's swank Erie-bach's and asked to see some fur neckpieces.

"There is a nice Russian sable at $200 per skin," said the clerk.

"That's too high for me. What else do you have?" said the official.

Then the clerk produced a stone marten fur piece at $335 a skin. The official again shook his head, claiming it was too steep a price, and added:

"Well, don't you make these fur pieces in mink?"

The startled clerk practically had a stroke. Recovering his breath, he finally stammered:

"Mink! Who would buy mink in Washington? The market has been broken—broken in little pieces. There have been no mink sales in Washington for two months."

Abandoning Ship

More and more top government officials are deserting the Truman administration. Latest to plan their exit are Stuart Symington, Reconstruction Finance administrator, and Manly Fleischmann, head of Defense Mobilization.

Both are among Truman's top trouble-shooters, but both are afraid of getting smeared by a close association with an administration that gets bogged down deeper daily.

In addition, Symington, when he started cleaning up the RFC and firing certain "friends" got a deluge of unpleasant ribbing from certain White House "guardsmen."

"Who do you think you are—little Lord Fauntleroy?" asked one White House secretary who had a finger in the RFC.

Coddling American Women

A group of congressmen investigating U. S. supply bases in Europe recently got a lecture on how we coddle our womenfolk.

The congressmen were quizzing a London businessman about delays in British arms production for the North Atlantic Pact program.

"We in the United States are going all-out to defend the free world against communism," said GOP Congressman Charles Brownson of Indiana. "But there seems to be a lag on this side of the Atlantic. Maybe if you fellows tried incentive pay for defense workers you'd get better production."

"It wouldn't work over here," disagreed the Londoner. "You Americans believe in extra drive and overtime, but a lot of your incentive on the job is to get more money to buy beauty treatments for your wives or labor-saving gadgets to lighten their toll. Over here, we work a little less and work our wives a little harder."

Congressman Brownson suggested that the Britisher would get a different view of the working habits of American mothers if he visited an average household, particularly around spring cleaning time.

Merry-Go-Round

Mink coats and 12-pound hams should be scarce around Mike Di Salle's stabilization offices at Christmas time—if his staff follows the dictum that they are to accept no Christmas presents which they can't eat or drink inside 24 hours.

John Sherman Cooper, ex-senator from Kentucky, now a delegate to the United Nations, will run for the senate again—this time against Sen. Tom Underwood, Democrat.

It's A Gift
It was Smedley's first night in jail and he noticed that one of the inmates in his block would call out a number and the rest would howl with glee. Then the process was repeated by someone else.

Smedley asked his cellmate what it was all about and got this answer: "Well, we've been here so long and heard the same jokes so many times, we numbered the stories to save time. Now someone calls out a number, and we identify it with a certain funny story."

Next night, Smedley tried his hand. "Twenty-six," he yelled. Utter silence followed. "Fifty-two," he yelled. Not a chuckle. "What's the matter?" Smedley asked his cellmate.

"Well," said the inmate, "it's like this. Some folks can tell a joke and some folks just can't."

Executive Board of Teachers Club

The executive board of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association met in the teachers' workroom of the Golden Avenue School on Monday evening of this week. A treasurer's report, given by Clarence Allen, revealed that 100% of the teachers and administrators in the district belong to the outstanding professional organizations in the nation.

The progress of the club's drive to secure pledges for the coming visit of the Bloodmobile to Lemon Grove on January 26 was announced by the public relations committee. This past week pledge cards were sent home with school children in the four district schools. The cards are now being collected and classified by that committee with the assistance of PTA groups.

The program chairman discussed the coming meeting of the association in February at which time people from various service clubs in the community will participate in a panel discussion. The regular January business meeting will be held on the 24th.

Attending were Bob Sutton, president, Grace Burks, Agnes Rodgers, Virginia Cornelius, Louis Poluzzi, Ovella Mason, Ben Schei, Margaret Darroch, Donna

Dreyer and Clarence Allen.

Color Studied by Art Students

Members of Miss Elizabeth Robbins' eighth grade classes are now engaged in a color project. The boys and girls have studied the primary and secondary colors, how to mix them correctly, and their relationship to each other. They have also discussed the light theory and the pigment theory and have written compositions on these. At present they are making large color wheels and graduations of shades, tints, and tones. Large charts in water colors are at present on display in the classroom.

Soon the class will do life drawings, using models from the classes. On January 28, the eighth graders will begin their science classes for the second semester and the five seventh grades will begin art classes.

Boys' Playoff Results

During the past week, playoffs have been held in the seventh and eighth grade boys' physical education classes of volleyball, with Coaches Brogan and Petersen in charge of games.

In the eighth grade, Morty Dickenson was captain of the winning team. His teammates included Ronnie Svalstad, Leonard Graham, Grant Ballantine, George Van Valkenberg, Bob Hensley and Gene Fulfer.

Second place honors went to Captain Ronnie Oaks, with Melvin Outberg, Eugene Westmoreland, Roger Courtney, Pete Kinyon and Ronnie Clark.

Captain Oliver Spitz led his boys to third place in the playoffs, and Captain William Byrd's team topped fourth place.

In seventh grade classes, Captain Winston Glines' team easily captured first place honors. Included were William Taylor, James Stockman, John McClure, John Hein, and Laird Hodge.

Captain James Goetz, along with John Shaw, Wayne Pinterick, James Brown, Frank Ferguson and Billy O'Connell took second place.

Third place honors went to Captain Duane Cox's team, and fourth place by Captain Joe Ward and his teammates.

The boys are now playing basketball. Girls in the two grades are finishing up playoffs this week in softball and the results will be given here next week.

Council Plans March of Dimes Campaign

The Student Council of the elementary school at Lemon Grove and Golden Avenue, under the sponsorship of Rolland Purves, sixth grade teacher, is planning a campaign for the March of Dimes campaign now being conducted throughout the county and in Lemon Grove by the Kiwanis Club. The council intends to secure the permission of those students now in our schools who have at some time contracted the dread disease, polio, and take a group picture of them for use in local papers. Students will bring signed notes from home verifying their illnesses and granting permission for the picture.

An assembly program will be held tomorrow (Friday) to acquaint the students further with the reason for the campaign. Richard Beers, a room representative to the council, is helping to publicize the campaign.

History Depicted on Map

A large map of the United States, illustrating the many purchases of territories making up this country, is now on display in the office of the Intermediate School. Members of Mr. Butler's history classes, 8-1 and 8-2, prepared the mural. Those students who assisted were Dorothy Jiron, Frances Lovett, Jeanne Routzong, Janice Sunbury, Peggy Lester, Grant Ballantine, Melvin Robinson, Monty Dickenson, John Luna and Bob Hensley.

Gems on Display

There is an interesting and colorful collection of semiprecious stones on display in Mr. Purves' sixth grade class. They were brought to the class by Eleanor Chassy.

Patrol Boys to Show

Through the courtesy of John van Gilse, the following members of the School Safety Patrol will enjoy a Saturday matinee at the Grove Theatre: James Herrera, Ward McMakin, Roger Hoppe, William Hodgins, Roger Slaght, Jimmy Dial, Ken Hill, Paul Jernigan, Joe Stone and Brian Von Gund, also Donald Wolfe and David Gallagher of school safeties.

Social and Health Committee Meets

The social and health committee met in the Lemon Grove school cafeteria to discuss further plans for improvement of cafeterias on Wednesday morning. This committee formed two months ago from the faculties and student bodies of all district schools in Lemon Grove, is working toward the improvement of table manners and cafeteria behavior and hopes to further educate students in menu planning, balanced diets, and budgeting of funds spent for food.

Keith Jensen is Junior High representative to these meetings and Miss Dona Almgren, science teacher, is a new faculty member to the committee. The discussions concerning menu planning are now scheduled for seventh grade science classes. A questionnaire will be submitted soon to all students, and will deal with many of the proposed reforms.

Girl Scout News

Mrs. Willard Holsclaw of Lemon Grove will be chairman for the district again this year; Mrs. Rueben E. Johnston of Lemon Grove, vice chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Trytten of Vista La Mesa, secretary. Egger of Rolando-Dale; program, Mrs. Glen Iversen of La Mesa; financial, Irvin Johnston, Lemon Grove; training committee, Mrs. Lester Nash, La Mesa. Drifting

By BOB GALLANDT

If we may borrow a line from the National Safety Council—"When approaching a stop sign, come to a dead stop—don't be stopped dead." A gruesome thought, you say? Well, almost 600 people like you and I won't enjoy next Christmas.

The Drifters are progressing nicely at rebuilding their "road and track" car. In regular Sunday meetings at Bill Terry's home on North avenue, the Drifters can be seen, heads together, working over the engine, formerly a '37 Olds, in the redesigned chassis. Come around and watch.

We elected new officers this week. Don Schmidt is president, and the subject for our thumbnail portrait this week: Bill Terry is vice president; Bob Crouch, treasurer; Bob Gallandt, secretary, and Don Barker, parliamentary. In addition to being vice president, Bill Terry also has accrued two more positions—that of historian, and the very important post of safety officer.

Don Schmidt, the personality of the week, was born in Somerton, Ariz., way back in 1932. Being of a rather dominating nature, he persuaded his parents to move to California when he was one year old, arriving here just in time for the 1933 earthquake. No blame is to be placed on Don, however, as it has been proven that it was a genuine earthquake. He worked his way through Lemon Grove School and Grossmont High selling subscriptions to the Don Schmidt fund for forward children there to San Diego Junior College, where he is still enrolled. He is planning to enroll in the University of California at Berkeley and, if everything jells, possibly graduate as a construction engineer. He is the proud owner of a 37 Ford tudor sedan, a little the worse for wear, but usable. Don has no time for girls, he says, as he studies most of the time. Well all right.

Over the holiday period most of the Drifters stayed close to home fires, but a couple got loose and drifted. Allen Lindley went over to Yuma to act as best man at a wedding of two of his friends, and Bob Gallandt braved the ice and snow to spend Christmas with his parents in Iowa.

Bear in MIND

When you sit right down and think about it, there is no difference between shopping for insurance and shopping for a piece of meat. When you drop in on the butcher and ask for a pot roast, you do not expect to unwrap a porterhouse steak when you get home. You have paid for pot roast and that is what you get. Unfortunately for everyone, many people think that insurance is all porterhouse steak. That is why we want every one of our clients to know and to bear in mind what they ordered and paid for—insurance-wise. It certainly saves a lot of headaches when a loss or a claim comes.

Helix, San Diego in Vital Loop Clash

The Helix Highlanders, under Ralph Chaplin, and Merrill Douglas' San Diego Cavemen meet tomorrow (Friday) night at the Grossmont gym at 8:15 p. m. in one of the most important City League games of the season.

It will be San Diego's first league contest, having taken a bye while the other six teams opened the season last Tuesday night. The defending champion Cavemen will stand a good chance of taking the title again this year if they can get by Helix, one of the main contenders.

Last Friday night, the Highlanders marooned Sweetwater, 38-24, at the Grossmont gym, for a non-league victory. The Helix B club posted a 41-19 triumph, its best effort of the season.

After the San Diego game, Helix meets St. Augustine Tuesday night at Grossmont at 8:15. Although the Saints aren't a league team they will give the Highlanders a tough time if things go as they did in their previous game, with Helix winning, 47-42.

Class B games are slated for 7 p. m. at both the San Diego and St. Augustine games. Weekend schedule:

CITY PREP LEAGUE

Friday's Games
San Diego vs. Helix.
Grossmont vs. Kearny.
Hoover vs. La Jolla.
Tuesday's Games
St. Augustine vs. Helix.
Grossmont vs. Hoover.
San Diego vs. La Jolla.
Kearny vs. Point Loma.

Helix Sophomores Oppose Pointers

The Helix Freshmen-Sophomore basketball squad meets the Point Loma Pointers Monday night at 8:45 in Municipal Gym for their third contest of the season. Paced by Stan Davies, Bernie Svalstad, Bob Lebb and Paul Angelo, the Highlanders stand a chance of upsetting the rough Point Loma five. Coach Quentin Keen has been working with the boys, and, despite handicaps they should develop into a fine team club. Following their date with Point Loma they have a skirmish with St. Augustine Wednesday night at the same gym.

The Hoover Commission report will be studied, and special emphasis will be laid on the federal government's role in water conservation.

The League of Women Voters is a national, non-partisan organization whose purpose is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. HEALTH for all

The TB Patient's "Medical Disease"

There are many similarities between a soldier who has been in armed conflict and a former tuberculosis patient whose disease has been arrested.

The soldier who has been in combat as part of a victorious army has helped conquer a military enemy. The former patient has emerged victoriously after combat for his own survival against the vicious enemy, tuberculosis.

Each man had special equipment which he used in the different types of battle. The service man was equipped with arms and ammunition to protect himself against his country's foe. The patient's natural resistance to his TB enemy was strengthened by weapons like complete physical rest, mental relaxation, a balanced diet, and good hospital care—all of which helped him win out.

Both men learned that conforming to discipline was of paramount importance. The military man obeyed the orders of his commanding officer because he knew he would have little chance of contributing to victory or even of coming out of combat alive unless he did so. The ex-patient followed the advice of the doctor, as the surest means of conquering his disease.

Patience and perseverance played major parts in the victories of both types of fighters. The uniformed man stayed in battle until the enemy was routed. The tuberculosis patient stuck with his hospital treatment until his illness was arrested.

We associate courage, stamina, and the will-to-win with the military veteran who returns to civilian life.

over. The same respect and admiration has been won by the patient who has doggedly fought his tuberculosis enemy, and won.

The service man returns to his community, benefited by his experiences in military service, ready to resume civilian life. The patient who has received his medical discharge from the tuberculosis hospital also returns a respected and useful community member. He has proved himself superior to the deadly enemy, tuberculosis, and won back his priceless possession of health.
